want to thank Jackie and Molly for always being there for me. Kara: we had some good times. To the guys on the soccer team: good luck next season. Thanks, Mom, Dad, Bethany, and Brandin, for supporting me throughout everything: I love you. Moving from Martha's Vineyard to BHS sophomore year wasn't easy, and I thank everybody who helped me with the transition. I want to thank the teachers who were so kind to me. Mrs. Howell and TGA 1605, great times. I love God, and always will. Ultimately, He is the one who gave me the strength I needed.

A group of girls met in a lunch room on the 1st day of 6th grade. But the 3 girls had more in common than they could even imagine. Since that first day, those girls were so close. But with that came drama with the boys and family life. All the fighting was worth it. The last day of middle school comes along. We are all sitting there like where did the time go? That would be the LAST day of that group of girls. Bam! High school happens. We dispersed from 1 another. Except 3! Milkyway, Bert, and Tiki. It has been 7 years since that 1st day in the lunch room. It is us 3 girls being true to who we are in front and ready for anything.

Wow, from my first step entering high school, to my last step leaving, all I can say is it's been an amazing and unforgettable experience, but finally it's over! Without these past four years I wouldn't be who I am today and ready for a new journey in my life. Thanks, Mom and Jojo, couldn't have done it without you two! My friends, you know who you are: you guys are awesome, some crazy times with all of you! Remember to put your dreams into reality.

Wake up and live! Check ya later, BHS!

Kyle Bates

These past four years have been quite an experience. There have been some good times and some bad times. All in all it was a lot of fun. I'm definitely going to miss all of my friends. It was fun while it lasted, and I'm sure there are plenty of fun times to come.

Wow, highschool went by fast. Thank you, Mom and Dad, for your support along the way: I love you. Thanks to all my teachers who taught me well. AND for SENIORS 2007! Brian Turnbull, Jimbo, Dave Aguiar, you are my brothers. Romero, Farley, Zicko, my poker crew. To my sister Stephanie, I love you, we finally got to be in the same school. My TGA was family, Oliver, Abbi, Dave, Jack, Trevor, Jordan, Bouche, Jen, and more. Senior year is the best, but it flies by. I value all the friendships I have made along the way: Seniors '07 BABY, WE DID IT

These past four years have gone by so fast. I'd like to thank my family, Mom, Dad and Paul, for helping me and being there for me through the good times and the bad. I'd also like to give a special thanks to my Dad, who passed his love of music onto me, because music has changed my life. I'd also like to thank all my friends who have gone through these years with me; you know who you are, and I thank you. So, thanks to everyone who has helped me, and good luck to everyone in the future.

4 years ago I was a freshman and walking through the halls of BHS thinking that I couldn't wait to leave. Now I don't want to leave. I want to thank all of my teachers and everyone in House C, b/c without them I wouldn't be here today. I want to thank my best friend, Chelse for being there for me. Kaitlyn:Gs rocks lol! To my dad, for being the most embarrassing person, but still being there. My brother and all my neighborhood friends, u guys r the best. To my mom and my sisters, I love you! Thanks to everyone in my life. Goodbye.

Kenneth Birely

Hey, high school is finally over! It has gone by so fast. I've had a lot of memories over the past 4 years. I want to thank my mom and dad, and the rest of my family for the support over the years. Mrs. Wilkins, thanks for all the help: you're the best. Thank you to all my teachers, especially Lilly, Leblanc, Cowgill, and Caldwell. To all the friends I've made over the years, tons of memories; and everyone I've played football with: you're all like family. OL BABY (KB,BE,CE,DW,JF) later BHS.

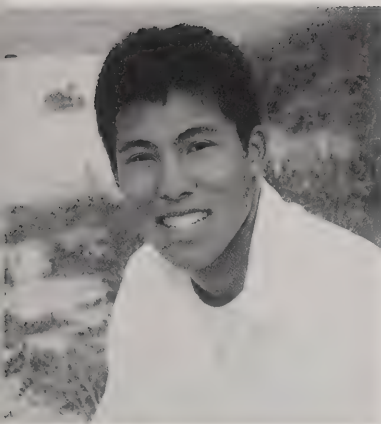

Michael Blasche

Like many people, my high school career has come and gone faster than I could ever imagine. I remember things that happened freshman year like they happened last week, but it also feels like it was such a long time ago at the same time. High school has been a fun and interesting experience, but I am definitely ready to move on in my life. I made a lot of friends in high school and I want to thank them for being there for me. I want to thank my mom for helping me get here. I am ready to take the next step in my life.

I suppose it's my time to speak...where to begin. Like everyone says, these four years really do fly by. First off, thanks to my family and teachers for all the support and guidance. To all my friends and to Jess, I appreciate all the memories and good times and here's to all those that are to come. You guys made my four years attending Barnstable High wicked fun; you're like family to me. To the Class of '07, congrats and good luck wherever you turn up; hopefully we will all see each other again someday. Looking back, I only wish we had done more with our time. Cheers.

It's crazy how fast we all grew up. Here's to the countless memories we made: swim meets & road trips, inside jokes & risks that changed me forever, all-nighters & AP Exams, beach days & crazy nights, and all the friends who made this whole ride worthwhile. Abbi, Andy, Courtney, and Shaun- you have all added to my life immeasurably. The Homeroom Crew and my Taco Shack loves - you guys are the greatest. And to my family (Jeffy, too) - You mean the world to me: I love you all so much. It's been an amazing time.

Kevin Bouche

"You should prepare for tomorrow yesterday"

Wow, high school went by so fast. I would like to start out by thanking my parents and teachers for their hard work in allowing me to walk on that stage in June. I value all my friends. I wouldn't have made it without you. Jp Co Jb Sp As TG Al Go SAbmL and all my friends, thanks. Mr. Donovan, thanks for all the advice. Seniors '07

It's higher up from up here and we're terrified to jump. The child in us has to push but if we close our eyes and count to three, we'll make it. The water is freezing, the current is strong, and it's getting deeper. This is it. To best friends, tearful nights, camping gone bad, and risky sleepovers. To ex-boyfriends who will never know what they missed, mothers who can't guess our secrets, and things Dad won't tell Mom. To Tripod, Mom, Dad, and my friends, who have supported my every choice, I would sink without you.

Ghandhi once said "the best way to fine yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others". It is so true! Without the humble generosity of my family, friends, and teachers I'd probably have an insane identity crisis or something. But thanks to you guys I have found myself! and I hope I did the same for you! My caring family, wise teachers and genuine friends... Thanks for being a positive influence!

As my senior year comes to an end, I find myself saying goodbye. Goodbye to the too-small seats and the overcrowded classes. Goodbye to the historical history teachers who sparked my interest in gov't. But as this chapter in my life ends, another chapter begins and I find myself saying hello. Hello to new experiences and new people. Hello to Georgetown (hopefully), and the white house in the backyard. I will never have to say goodbye to my sidekick Larissa, because she'll always be by my side.

As a freshman, I didn't think this day would ever come; it seemed so far off, but here we are. There were a lot of bumps in the road, but I'm thankful because I'm a better person for it. Mom and Dad, I Love You. Thank you for your love and understanding; your encouragement means everything to me. Tim and Andrew, I couldn't ask for better brothers. To all of my friends and people I have met along the way, I love you all: you will never be forgotten. Thanks for getting me through. Class of '07, we did it. Watch out world, here I come.

Barnstable High School '07. We've had a good run. One year of half-year courses and two years without a quad. Rotating principals and an annual smell of cat dissection. Fire alarms in 30 degree weather and yearly assemblies to remind us of how amazing our gymnastics team is. A semester of Chuch Norris jokes and a year-long wait for the Dodgeball Tournament. MCAS scheduling not only making the day longer, but also losing the senior cate. Air conditioning in the winter and heating in the spring. Barnstable High School '07. A public school. A perfect school

First of all I want to thank my family and friends who were there for me through all of those years. I could list some names, but I'm sure you all know who you are. I love you guys and I couldn't imagine getting through this without you. I'll always remember the somewhat awkward but funny moments in Homeroom, as well as the Drama Club and the times we went out late at night. It's been a good 4 years for me in high school and I will miss it in some ways, but I'm ready to move on to a new experience.

I'll look back at this passage and laugh because I wrote and passed it in two days after it was due. What is there really to say about highschool? Maybe thanks for the four years wasted, but that's not true. I had a lot of fun, I have to admit. Thank you to all my friends who helped me along the way; I will miss the fun times we had together. Thanks to the teachers who actually cared about their students: you have taught me so much. I will miss all the great people I've met and all the great times I've had at BHS. Thank You.

"Every generation needs a new revolution"

If college is anything like high school, graduating should not be all too hard. Some of the best years of my life have been spent here. I'd like to thank my parents more than anyone for not ever giving up on me. I'm going to miss this school and the people I know. Now all that's left to do it to get ready for the rest of my life and register to vote so Puff Daddy won't kill me.

Later, High School !

IT'S FINALLY OVER! I'D LIKE TO FIRST THANK GOD FOR CARRYING ME THRU THE PAST 4 YEARS. THERE ARE SO MANY OTHERS I'D LOVE TO THANK SO HOPEFULLY
I'VE SHOWN MY APPRECIATION OVER THE YEARS SO YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE. I
HAS BEEN EASY BUT I KNOW THESE PAST 4 YEARS HAVE SHAPED ME, MADE ME WISER AND STRONGER. I DON'T KNOW WHERE TO GO FROM HERE, BUT ALL I CAN DO IS HOPE FOR SOMETHING BETTER.

It goes on.
-Robert Frost

I can't believe how fast these 4 years have gone by. Mom, Dad, Murphy + Mazie - I couldn't have done any of it without you. Jary and Greg - thanks for always keeping me on track. Mr.
Brown and Mr. Buckman - thanks for all of your help. Hockey Boys - HHAYAWKKKPCFCLML - it's been real. Henry - always there, best friends. MH - volvos. To everyone else who has helped me along the way: thank you for all the memories... they will never be forgotten.

Class of 2007 - Best of luck with whatever may come next... Peace.

It has been a great four years. Making some new friends and keeping the old ones. Going to the football games and playing cards with $lick Vic, Lars, ZWIL, Hambone, Beelz, Romero, Bonia, Ryan, Travis, Jimbo, The bushwackers, Turnbull, and Zicko. Also all the others not named because of not enough room to write. I would also like to thank my parents for getting me this far. And last but not least working at Hyannis Golf Club and all the fun times there with Andrew, Dave, Phil, Greg, Collopy, Bill, Mikki, Dick, Vinny, Terry, and Rich.

Hannah Fazio

"Good times never seemed so good.
I've been inclined to believe they never would."
-Neil Diamond

It's hard to believe that these past four years have gone by so quickly. I'd like to thank my family for always being behind me 100% and believing I can achieve anything I put my mind to. Thanks to my friends, especially GPS. I love you girls, you are all amazing. You have always been there for me during the good and bad times, and I won't forget any of you. Just remember to keep it JJ casual. Stepford crew for life. CCR - unleashed the fury (nyami nyami love). Congrats, Class of '07. Later BHS, it's been real!

What can I really say? I made it until the end! So many things have happened in these past four years. Some bad and some good, no regrets! I have to give thanks to my parents for supporting and putting up with me. To my friends, thanks for being there, and I'll always be here for you! Too many great memories to count, and many more to come : o) To my teachers, thanks for pushing me, even if I resisted at times. This chapter of my life is near the end and I look forward to the next step.

Bernadette Haley

Whoever said these are the best years of our lives never spent four years at BHS. But I finally did it. Thank you everyone who helped me get through it. Most of all my mom for all the love and support. Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Yessin, Mrs. Wilkins, Mr. Lopes, Mr. Gyra, Mr. Lilly, Sue, Sarah and all my friends: I love you and from the bottom of my heart, thank you. I should have put initials and inside jokes that I'll forget in five years here, but I will never forget what matters. Good luck to everyone. Thank you. I love you.

Senior year came all too fast! I kinda wish I could do it over again: it was a load of fun! But I also can't wait to go to college. Anyway, I just want all my friends to know that I thank them for making it a blast; I don't want to name anyone specifically, but you know who you are. I will say this, though: anyone I've hung out w/ before I wrote this, you kick! And likewise to afterwards. And a special thanks to ALL my teachers. Astronomy class rules! And last, but definitely not least, this one goes out to the one I love: Cait!

Seniors 07! Isn't it crazy how time flies? The past 4 years have been a whirlwind of goods, bads, ups, and downs but I wouldn't trade any of it for the world. I'd never have made it w/o you. Mom&Dad! You're my support, my role models & my best friends. My girlies- It's been a crazy ride and although some of us have grown apart, you mean the world to me. Guys- thanks 4 all you do. I luv you! ME, JS, JO-I can't begin to tell you how much you mean to me. Couldn't ask for better best friends! Lata, BHS! Tear it up out there seniors! I'll miss you!

Henry R. Hewitt

These past four years have gone by so fast, but the memories will always last,
And now with the beginning so near, I thank the ones that helped me get here.
For those are the ones that I hold dear.

Farewell and good luck! Special thanks to all my family and friends:
couldn't have done it without you!

I'm not saying it wasn't fun, but I'm glad to be graduating. To Brenna, I love you and I always will. I hope that we can be together long after BHS. To the gab four, its been a long time with you guys and I won't forget all the times we had, and all the stuff we've been through. It's funny that we're still together after all these years. I hope we can have as much fun in the real world, as we did in BHS. As Ms. Aborn would say, "Happy Day!"

Most importantly I would like to thank Jesus Christ for never leaving my side and being the best friend I could ever have. Also to Mom, Dad, Christine, Kendra, Poppa, Gramma, Grammy, and Grandpa for loving and supporting me no matter what. I love you! Thanks to Jason, Amy, and Nora, and all the amazing dancers at Dance Designs. To my best friends - you know who you are. I love you all so much and thanks for all the great times and laughs. It's been amazing but we're finally done and it's over! Good luck next year...

It's about time...all I really want to write about is my friends. My family will always be there for me but lets face it, I might not see some of my friends ever again. Though occasionally we did something smart, most of the things we did were really dumb. But I could always count on you guys to do them with me. No matter how bizarre the idea. Especially when myself, Ricky, Sarah, Alison, and of course Nick went to Boston for the day. And who else would show up but Mike and Bryce. And as for all the times with Nick, just don't get me started. And to all of those I knew, thank you.

So this is it, my senior year at Barnstable High School. It's weird how fast high school flies by. I've had some of my best memories here. I want to thank all of my teachers who have helped me through each year. Thanks to everyone in the Music Department who helped me develop my music ability so that I can go off to school. I want to thank all my friends who have helped me. Great times hanging out with all of you. Some of the best times were when we all hung out at the beach. I wish the best of luck to everyone in my graduating class. Thank you, everyone at Barnstable.

When I was told as a freshman that these years would pass in the blink of an eye, I was skeptical. Next thing I know, high school is over. All of a sudden, a mountain of experiences have become memories, and I am a different person than I used to be. There are many people I owe thanks to for helping me through my high school years, and they include my mom, dad, brother, sister, friends, and teachers. Wishing the best to the class of '07, no matter where life brings us all.

"Technology is the fuel that powers improvement, progress and modern life."

It was when I was twelve that I was first truly interested in computers. I was given an old 486 computer, which didn't work properly anymore. I took it apart. While I was unable to fix the broken machine, I did realize that I could figure out what each of the computers did. I went on to work with many more computers and gained experience that will now help me in my goal to start a humble computer repair service. With support from many of my close friends like Jill and Cam, I know that I will succeed.

I don't really know what to say here. It's been a pretty good four years, I suppose. Lots of changes, for sure. The unexpected loss of my grandfather was probably the greatest of them: If you're wondering about my quote, it was the quote that inspired him to do great things. So anyway, I've made some new friends, lost touch with some old ones, and re-connected with others. Thanks to everyone who's been there with me these four years; I'm sure we'll keep in touch. Today marks the end of an era. Years of books, plays, dances, and sports have all led to this gratifying moment. As we, the Class of 2007, sit here watching as the last of our high school careers fade into the twilight and nervously await what new adventure tomorrow will bring, it is important that we take a moment to reflect and appreciate the enormity of our accomplishments. For our graduation marks not only our passage from the halls of Bamstable High School, but also serves as a declaration of our commitment and effort.

"The preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing but to those who are being saved it is the power of God."

- 1 Corinthians 1:18

I'm a living testimony to the glory and resurrection power of Jesus. Although He died 2000yrs ago, He is alive! The blood that was shed on the cross still applies to 07. Our sin nailed Him to the cross. He paid the price you owed. U can live a life free of sin n make Heaven ur home w/Him, instead of in Hell. W/out Jesus on the throne of ur heart, u are headed there. The answer to life is simple -It's found in Jesus. Ths dsnt mean it is easy to humble urself to the truth but Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No man comes to the Father but by me." Remember someone saying, "You can choose your friends, not your family." It is true, after all. So, I want to thank my grandparents for letting me stay here. I came here less than confident because of a negative experience from Indiana; I wasn't too smart to figure it out. But they accepted me as their son and have encouraged and taught me just like their children. And for the last part, I want to thank everyone for knowing me, everyone.

By the time we read this, let there be light for everyone.

Senior year. The best year of high school, and also the last. I've noticed how much I've changed, and how much this school has changed over the years. High school has brought on so many new friends and freedoms. I have an amazing girlfriend, a decent-paying job, and an awesome car. Who could want more from senior year? I had to have help with this because I'm lazy. Sure will. Lets go to IHOP. Nina, its been 2 months already and many more to come! I love you!

Four years of high school was certainly enough, but that doesn't mean I didn't enjoy myself. I think it's important that I thank Linny, my exquisite English teachers, and the Swim Team (SCCCR) for some of my best high school experiences. And as for extracurriculars, an extra big thanks to Larry and the Slinksters for some truly dank times. And remember, "You're either on the bus, or you're off the bus." Mom. I'm ever indebted to you. I love you + thank you for it all. Bakers I'm continually grateful for your kindness. BmAbSmTcAdKe- you all amaze me, your ability to show care to such a great extent astounds me. You've helped me grow and never cease to lift my spirits. MfEfRoMrS - high school had its ups + downs, but you helped me survive. Brad, you're a light in my life and I'm ever enlightened by your wisdom. I pray that as I leave what I hold to be home that I'll retain what I've learned and especially keep the memories. I love you all.

"Stop making sence, making sence!" Madlove to: Mags-My Family-Fomasaros-Kaplans&Griff. Thanks all of you. You are epic. Plus buddies.

A pirate is free-a pirate sees no boundaries and lives how he wants to live. A pirate is independent and loyal to their mates. A pirate today would be someone who understood that you can be anywhere. The world is yours and to have possession would only hold you back- Having one home is holding you back-and fear holds you back as well. Let go of everything and go do what you've always wanted to do-experience it-live it. To be a pirate is to be as such-&everyone else-those who only dream-are frauds.

"Cultivate enthusiasm. People will like you better; you will escape the dull routine of a mechanical existence & you will make headway wherever you are."

A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step. Looks like our journey is finally complete. Suprisingly I'll miss it; friends, foes, teachers, tardies, fear, fights, monday mornings, friday afternoons, happiness, sadness, EMBARRASSMENT, first & last days of school, excuses. Pretty soon, we'll finally be able to understand what people actually meant when they compared everything to 'the real world.' Thanks to everyone, you've taught me well. Fam, GIOC.KP.MB.GB.JL.CL....love you. Congrats BHS; good luck to the next chapter of your life...WOOHOO GO WILD!

-The Smashing Pumpkins

Well, to say the least, it's been an interesting 4 years. To my friends & family, thank you putting up with me; I couldn't have done it without you. I'll never forget all the concerts/shows I went to, always ending up at stop&shop, late-night car rides, "Bad Manners Night", Tre being pushed in 2 shopping cart through the drive-thru, getting stuck in a parking lot in Braintree, "DERP DERP", bonfires, everyone's car issues, and all the weird things we did between. It's been 1 crazy ride, and I'm finally ready to unbuckle myself.

It's so hard to say goodbye to a routine you've done your whole life. When one door closes, another one opens. We leave childhood and enter adulthood. Don't take life so seriously; life is too short - High school years go by so fast, and when it finally ends you don't want to leave. So I bid you farewell with a shout-out to my peoples: bye Vic, bye Vytas (and your mom), Mrs. Varjian, my girls: Mikaela, Tiffany and Josie. We're leaving this place! Peace up; A-town down! Good bye, Mrs. Jochim. Deshonda out!!!

"They say that your years in high school are the best years of your life.
Oh No! So it can get worse."

Oh no! So, what's next? I guess that's a mystery! When I was finally getting used to this place I have to start all over again. Why do I always have to come back to being a freshman? First in Elementary School, then in High School, and now what? College and work? I guess life is just a big school, kindergarden, its over, and here comes big and tough elementary school. Wish me luck! I will lose some great friends, but hey, don't worry, I'll be sure to make some great new ones. So I guess this is goodbye!

How can I sum up the last four years of my life? Fun gym incidents, lunch incidents, pick up football games, unexpected b-day greetings, poker night, driving around boring Hyannis thinking of what to do dude's night out, maybe bowl or golf. I don't know where I'd be without the help of my brothers Michael and Joey. I wish I tried harder, but that's what college is for. To my top boys DR,CB,JZ,ZM,KS,CF,JN,WM,AM,PM,JC,JC,AP,MW. It was fun while it lasted, hopefully we'll all laugh these years, see ya.

I am finally a senior, 4 years have gone by way too fast. It is sad to think that life will never be the same again. Change is scary but at the same time good. Friends and family are the ones that make high school memorable. To all of you who are important to me: you know who you are; I thank all of you for what you have done for me.
I love each and everyone of you! Goodbye and good luck!

"And the story goes like this"

These final four years of childhood have gone by fast. Time for a change anyway. Thank you Mr. Smith for everything. Thanks to Mrs. Styche, Mr. Sullivan, and Mrs. Howell for teaching me inside and outside the classroom. Instead of adding a long, drawn out list of pointless initials and names of all my friend, I'd rather keep it short and simple. To all of you who have helped me for the better, and you all certainly know who you are, thanks. Thanks to my Mom and Dad for guiding me through life. Thanks to my grandma for all her wisdom. Good luck BHS, see you in 20 years.

I remember starting freshman year with horror stories about the high school running through my mind. I soon found out some, not all, were true and luckily I survived these four fabulous years anyways. Thanks to my teachers who pushed me so hard at times I thought I would break, and to my friends who were always there to make sure I didn't. If loss of sleep, gossip, and stress define the best years of a person's life, then yes, high school was the best years of mine. Congratulations and good luck Class of 2007.

"The time is up, song is over, thought I'd something more to say." RW Thanks Mom & Bean for all love & support. Love you The Kozakiewicz's, thank you for all you have given and taught me, you'll always be family. Melissa, Ang & Stacia, wish you could be here w/ us, you'll always be in my heart. I like to thank the crazy teachers @BHS that were as passionate about their teaching as they were about me learning. As for my friends, thanks for just being you, and always being there for me. We have definitely had fun but we all know it has only just begun...

"You don't need a weatherman to know which way the wind blows."

BHS has been good to me these past 4 years. I've had a lot of great teachers and I want to thank all of you for putting up with me. To my friends, thanks for making these couple of years a blast. We've had a ton of fun (probably a little too much), at times raised a few eyebrows, but I've also learned a lot from all of you. I'm glad we've been lucky enough to have our own dysfunctional little unit, with Ricky's basement as our second home. When it's all said and done, I wouldn't change a thing. Party on Garth

The past four years have gone by so fast and I never could do it without my family. Mom, thanks for keeping me organized and always supporting me. Dad, thanks for asking so many questions. Tom, you've always been a great role model, I'm being dead serious. Mamie, living with you is like having two mothers, but in a good way. Lastly Morse, it's nice to know that whatever I spark up, you will put out. You're a living legend, and you're what I aspire to be in life, including the hair.

I'm totally stoked and brinning with enthusiasm, but still totally freaked out about college. But whatever happens, happens. I have to thank my parents. Debbie, you've been like a sister to me these past 4 years, and Povilas, a brother, for these past 7. I love you guys and I'd do anything for you. Thanks also to VM, DS, RM, JM, and all my other great friends. I have to give a shout out to the human electron, Mr. Gyra; the kind of man we should all aspire to be. Too many great times to remember. Thanks to all my teachers and friends. MILK BOTTLE!!

So I suppose it's time for me and old BHS to part ways...I want to thank my parents, without whom I could not have been born and subsequently could not have completed high school. Thank you for your help, whether or not I thought I needed it. I really appreciate all you two do, and I don't thank you near enough. Marcia, thanks for always making time to hang out; Laura, no one can just talk about anything like we can: I love you. Kim: I hope your HS years are great. Thanks also to the teachers and friends who made HS great. I'll be sure to remember you when I become a big deal in the real world.

Math Team

Operation: Math Team

Base: 1322

Station Chief: Ms. Crook

Mission: To build and refine math skills in order to achieve success in various math meets around the Cape.

The Math Team is an organization of students bound by a common interest in mathematics. In teams of five students each, they compete in meets as part of the Southeastern Massachusetts Conference Math League. Each meet consists of five rounds in which students compete for points individually, followed by one team round. Students and teams are awarded one point for every easy question answered correctly, two points for each medium question, and three points for each difficult question. Though this is only the team's second season, it already boasts multiple individual high scorers Alex Nee and Shoh McLaughlin are two of the team's notable seniors.

Leo Club

Operation: Leo Club

Base: Room 2609

Station Chief: Mr. Koehler

Mission: Community Service

Mr. Koehler is proud of the Leo Club's dedication to improving our community. "We collect old eyeglasses that are remade into new glasses for people who can't afford them and we purchase glasses for BHS students who can't afford them." The club helped to set a world record, carving nearly 320 pumpkins on Boston Common during the Pumpkinfest to benefit Camp Sunshine. Other community service projects include picking up trash on the highways (Adopt a Highway) and hearing and vision screening for juniors in the EyeMobile every year. The core group of 10 members includes Jaclyn McGrath, one of the club's most involved seniors.

This art society fosters an Excellence and a dedicated spirit to the arts! "Anyone interested in having a positive impact on others through art is welcome to join," says Mr. Lopes. Working as a team, the club has created art that enriches the school and the community. The club worked on a mural in the 1200s this year in the entrance of the Astropark, for the Astronomy Club. The memory project is something they are also involved in. The project consists of creating a picture of a child from a poverty-stricken country, and giving it back to the child as a gift of art. As the members say, it's so much fun with this group! It will rub off on you, literally. So, wipe that paint off your face and come join the "pARTy!" If you want to help and inspire the world with art, then this club is definitely for you!!!

Art Club

The art club, devoted to creating art and helping the community, is open to all students at BHS, even those who don't have time to fit art classes into their schedules.

While students can work on individual projects, they are also part of larger community projects. This year the Art Club is working with the Heifer Foundation, a charity dedicated to eliminating world hunger, to raise money by selling tiles that members have painted. Treasurer Meg Wroe, the club's treasurer, remarked that in addition to all its community-oriented projects, the club is always striving "to promote the enjoyment of art."

Gay Straight Alliance

What: Gay Straight Alliance
Where: Room 2301
When: Every Wednesday from 2-3
Who: Mrs. Swindler

Mission: Dr. Gina Hurley started the club in 1993 after a student was attacked, on school grounds, because of sexual orientation. The members of GSA work diligently to advocate for safety for all and to stop any kind of harassment at BHS. One of their goals is to educate staff and students about the laws and their civil rights. Outside of school they socialize with other GSA members around the Cape as well as participate in activities offered at CIGSYA house in Hyannis. The members of GSA support one another, says Mrs. Swindler, but they also try to make BHS a comfortable place for everyone.

An overview of the season...

The Barnstable girls volleyball team added another perfect season to their legacy this year. The Raiders finished 75-0 in matches and 75-0 in games, thus improving their consecutive win streak to 99 straight matches. In the process, they added yet another state championship title, their fourth in a row.

A first this year, Barnstable defeated Beverly Hills, California, in a highly anticipated game led in a 3-0 victory for the top Raiders. They also swept second-ranked and D-2 defending State Champion Marshfield 3-0.

In the tournament, Barnstable defeated Marshfield and Fontbonne Academy, moving them into the South

Sectional finals against New Bedford.

It seems every year, Barnstable and New Bedford meet to battle for the chance to make it to the semifinals. Barnstable was able to take the South Sectional Championship trophy back to Barnstable for the 12th straight year, in three exciting games, 25-21, 25-13, 25-23.

In the semis the girls conquered Lincoln-Sudbury, bringing the Raiders to the state finals yet again. After three long games vs. Newton North (25-11, 25-12, 25-20), Barnstable took the State Championship title for the 10th time in the past 14 years.

Coach Turco with his seniors, Natalie Cohen, Marissa Pita, Erin Johnson, Jessi Goode and Allie Appelman, can finally relax at the end of another great season.

"In every contest, there comes a moment that defines winning from losing. The true warrior understands and seizes that moment by giving an effort so intensive and so intuitive that it could be one from the heart."

-Pat Riley, The Winner Within

The football team goes through training camp during August where they begin to prepare for the season. During the season they practice six days a week. Practices are long and hard, but they are worth it, because they teach discipline, responsibility, and teamwork. To be on the team a person has to be dedicated and want to be there. Coach Demanche is willing to give a chance to anyone willing to put in the effort. Coach's motto is, "If you want to achieve something you've never done before, you're going to have to work harder than you ever have before."

The Raiders' 2006 captains were Donny Campbell, Christopher Ellis and Zach Wilson. Other players who made the '06 season something to remember are Tyler Murphy, Kyle Bates, Mike Bess, Jake Fulham, Raj Mahabir, Mike Allen, Brian Jenkins, Dave Wiseman, Tod Lomax, Ryan Tremblett, Ben Edwards, Jimbo Canon, Dean Tillman, Casey Hanf, Kenneth Birely, Alex Glenn and Dwayne King.
